

Winter Pub of the Season

Old Poets' Corner - Ashover by Andrea Waterhouse

Jackie and Kim Beresford pictured at the presentation, with Branch Vice Chairman Mary Keast.

After fighting off stiff competition from some worthy adversaries, the Old Poets' Corner, Ashover, won the latest Branch Award. A minibus full of (very) willing volunteers visited this friendly and popular village pub to present the certificate. The regulars (of whom there are many) and visitors alike seemed very pleased by the event and wholeheartedly agreed with the Award.

The Old Poets' has, in a relatively short time, managed to make its mark on the local pub scene. Kim & Jackie are keen to support CAMRA campaigns: showcasing a range of beer (often from local breweries), always keeping a selection of real ciders, and holding regular Beer Festivals. Having managed to build up a following of happy drinkers, Kim and Jackie assured us that they would carry on as they had begun - they have recently secured the freehold of the pub and as well as now offering B&B accommodation, there is the prospect of a micro-brewery!

Enjoy the strolls, take in the views. Then rest ye man, woman and dog at

The Old Poets' Corner

ASHOVER, DERBYSHIRE

At the bottom of the Village below the Church

CHESTERFIELD CAMRA

WINTER PUB OF THE

SEASON 2005

Tel: 01246 590888 - www.oldpoets.co.uk

SEVEN REAL ALES available and SIX TRADITIONAL CIDERS

also Country Fruit Wines & a range of Belgian Bottled Beers

A True Free House

FUNCTION ROOM & CONFERRING FACILITIES ARE NOW AVAILABLE !!

Every Tuesday is Open Acoustic Night
Poets join in on the 2nd Tuesday each month
Music every Sunday Evening
Quiz every Wednesday 9:30pm.

STOP PRESS !!!
En-Suite B&B AVAILABLE NOW!!!

Book your Winter Break in the Countryside
Good Beer & Food
Nice People & Beautiful Surroundings
Well behaved Dogs are welcome at no extra charge